- » The Religious Coalition for Emergency Human Needs is a Frederick County nonprofit, that has been providing residents of Frederick County emergency financial assistance for over 30 years.
- » The Religious Coalition is the primary provider of emergency services for basic human needs, such as shelter, food, medical and dental care, and prescription medications.
- » The Coalition manages the Alan P. Linton Jr. Emergency Shelter, which is the largest and only emergency shelter for the homeless in Frederick County.
- » Emergency food assistance is provided through the Coalition's network of 8 affiliated food banks located in the Frederick, Brunswick, Jefferson, Middletown, Thurmont, Emmitsburg, Walkersville and Knoxville communities.
- » The Religious Coalition is the largest provider of emergency financial assistance outside of the local government.
- » Without the efforts of the Religious Coalition, the total number of homeless families in Frederick County would double.

MISSION STATEMENT

THE RELIGIOUS COALITION FOR EMERGENCY HUMAN NEEDS

The Religious Coalition for Emergency Human Needs is an organization comprised of people of faith committed to making our faith real through acts of compassion that manifest God's caring presence. We coordinate donations of time, talent, money, food and other resources to meet the urgent needs of people of Frederick County. The Coalition works toward a more just and compassionate society.
